

Job Description

LGBTQ+ Students' Officer

Job Title:	LGBTQ+ Students' Officer
Salary:	£12.56 per hour (subject to approval)
Contract type:	One year, 5-10 hours per week
Line Manager:	Herts SU Management Team

Purpose of Role

The LGBTQ+ Students' Officer of the Students' Union works with students and staff to make Herts even better. You will spend your year in post speaking with students, our President and your team of fellow Part-Time Officers, School Community Organisers and Student Reps to find out what students think and then share this information across the University. You will act as a Committee member of the LGBTQ+ Society and facilitate community building initiatives within the student population. All with the goal of helping students love life at Herts.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

- Chair the LGBTQ+ Students' Network and act as a committee member of the LGBTQ+ Society, working with the SU to develop the membership of the network and society, running at least four meetings per year
- Organise three initiatives per year as prescribed in your agreed action plan for LGBTQ+ students and allies at the University of Hertfordshire, working to ensure they are inclusive and accessible
- Act as the lead student representative for LGBTQ+ students at the University of Hertfordshire
- Advocate on behalf of students who identify as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and/or Queer, including those who identify as asexual, aromantic, pansexual, non-binary, genderqueer, genderfluid and intersex
- Proactively gather student views and use student-based evidence to support representational activities
- Attend and report at all assigned University and SU committees
- Attend and report at the SU Board of Trustees
- Attend and report at Student Council
- Work with the Union's and University's marketing teams to actively promote yourself via social media through official channels and promote the work of the Students' Union, encouraging students to engage and maximise the opportunities available to them
- Support and attend activities such as Open Days, Freshers, International arrivals and official Students' Union events

Contacts

The post holder will come into contact with students, Students' Union Managers, Students' Union staff, Elected Officers and University staff.

Additional Information

This document outlines the general duties required for the time being for the post of LGBTQ+ Students' Officer. This is neither a comprehensive or exhaustive list and the duties may be varied from time to time and may be changed and be added to or deducted from. Any changes will not alter the general character of the job and/or level of seniority or responsibility, unless following on from discussion and agreement.

Your Eligibility

Any continuing University of Hertfordshire student who self-defines as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans, Queer and/or any other marginalised gender or sexual identities.