

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Community Events Coordinator	Responsible to:	Community Events Manager
Salary:	£24,500	Responsible for:	Events Assistant Student Staff
Location:	Based at the College Lane & De Havilland campuses, although work at other sites may occasionally be required.
Liaison with other personnel:	The post holder reports to the Community Events Manager of Hertfordshire Students' Union but will work closely with other staff members, particularly the other members of the Community Events team and our Elected Officers. The post holder will also work with students, a variety of contractors, university staff/departments and the local authority.
Purpose:	This role would join the Community Events Team and support with day-to-day event logistics. With events ranging from cultural and religious celebrations to academic and career support sessions, the post holder would need to have an open mind and a strong willingness to immerse themselves in a diverse environment. Working closely with our thriving societies, the postholder would be very student facing and must balance multiple projects at the same time.

Herts SU

Vision: Our vision at Herts SU is to help students love life at Herts. The Community Events Team is a core part of our vision to help students enjoy their time on campus and make lasting friendships with their peers.

Values: We are a truly values-led organisation. As such, we're looking for someone who lives our everyday values of being Helpful, Empowering, Representative, Transparent and Student-Focused. We encourage our team to have fun at work whilst never losing sight of our vision.

Service Excellence: We go above and beyond for our students and each other – we're committed to providing excellent service across the board and we support each other to prioritise this every day.

Equality and Diversity Commitment

Hertfordshire Students' Union is committed to diversity and inclusion amongst its staff, reflecting the communities it serves. We welcome applications from Black, Asian and ethnic minority backgrounds, as they are underrepresented within the Union's professional staff team. We are an equal opportunities employer and welcome applications from all suitably qualified persons regardless of their race, sex, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation, or age.

Key role requirements:

This role offers an exciting opportunity for an enthusiastic professional with a passion for event management to deliver (and support student groups to deliver) a range of events and activities, aimed at increasing engagement with our services, activities and values. Tasks include:

- Event planning, execution and feedback including face to face and virtual activity
- Providing event templates, guides, risk assessments and generic event management advice for our student groups
- Coordinating a range of stakeholders, including students, staff, suppliers and contractors.

Main duties and responsibilities:

Support for Student-led Events

- Act as the first point of contact for student groups who are planning events, in particular, societies, networks, and Elected Officers.
- Feed into student group training with tailor made event management workshops. Ensure supporting documents are available online to help student societies to deliver high quality events.
- Collaborate with our student groups on the development of an annual series of culturally diverse and inclusive activities.
- Work with student groups to develop their events and ensure cohesive promotion of their events and activities on social media platforms.
- Support student groups to use events and activities to grow their society memberships.
- Develop good working relationships with key members of staff across multiple departments to support the delivery of student-led events.
- Work closely with the Community Engagement Assistant to ensure clear communication from the Community Events Team.

Management of SU Events

- Work with the Community Events Team, Elected Officer Team and other managers/departments to deliver a range of high-quality events aimed at increasing awareness of the Students' Union, our services and values.
- Produce risk assessments, full logistics plan, resource requirement plans and on the day requirements for SU events.
- Play a key role in the organisation of our annual Freshers' and Refreshers' Week. This includes leading on the organisation of Freshers' Week events.
- As we have a large commuting student demographic, some tasks include planning, running, hosting and promoting online events and activities.
- Maintain event participation and engagement information for research purposes, including reaching out to students for consistent feedback and utilising this feedback to shape the events and events provision.
- Ensure efficient, effective, professional and high-quality service delivery.
- Plan, promote and deliver an annual programme of trips and offsite activities for students to participate in.
- Working with the Community Events Team, Marketing Team, other service managers and Elected Officers, lead in organisation of Students' Union Awards Evening(s) and Graduation Balls.
- Assist with the Students' Union presence at University Open Days.
- Supervise and coordinate any external contractors related to events, ensuring all relevant documentation is received and permits to work issued where necessary.
- Work with the University's Media and PR team and the Union's Marketing team to promote and share highlights from events

General:

- Keep abreast of relevant national and local developments, changes in legislation, and good practice and attend conferences, training events and meetings, as necessary.
- Have a flexible approach to work and willingness to undertake any other reasonable duties which may be required.
- Support the Senior Community Events Coordinator with the day-to-day management and running of our Welcome Desks.
- Aspire to the highest standards of customer care at all times and, in conjunction with other relevant Union staff, to identify and respond to customer needs.
- Respect the democratic structure of the Students' Union at all times.
- Abide by Hertfordshire Students' Union Memorandum and Articles of Association, and Union Policies and Procedures at all times.
- Work flexibly and efficiently and to promote a positive image of Hertfordshire Students' Union at all times.

HERTS SU

- Set high standards of integrity, punctuality, accuracy, politeness and professionalism by personal example.
- Be aware of the department's impact on the environment and to work within the environmental policies of the Union and the University (where applicable).

Supervision received

The post holder reports to the Community Events Manager but will work closely with other staff, Managers and Senior Managers and Elected Officers.

Supervision given

The post holder will have responsibility for student staff and occasionally student volunteers.

Responsibility for budgets

Although the post holder will not be responsible for any department budget, they will assigned budgets for events they lead on and will be required adhere to set figures as well as to show commitment to maintaining healthy accounts within the Events Department.

This document outlines the general duties required for the time being for the post of Community Events Coordinator. This is neither a comprehensive or exhaustive list and the duties may be varied from time to time and may be changed and be added to or deducted from. Any changes will not alter the general character of the job and/or level of seniority or responsibility, unless following on from discussion and agreement.
